Process and Progress - Training

June 2018

Investigate and implement the California History Framework with a focus on the four instructional shifts:

1. Shift to inquiry-based teaching
2. Modification of content at various grade levels
3. Integration of literacy support for all learners, but especially ELL students
4. Inclusion of 'citizenship' as a theme to connect and engage student with relevant real-world issues

October 2018

Deepen the understanding and implementation of the CA History Framework:

- Continue exploring explicit teaching of historical thinking
- Provide additional discipline-specific literacy strategies
- Institutionalize a lesson development and review cycle based on analysis of student work

Process and Progress - Review and Refine Evaluation Rubric

California County Superintendents Educational Services Association (CCSESA) 2018 History Social Science Adoption Toolkit

- Reviewed components
- Clarified contents
- Refined format

Process and Progress - Pros and Cons

Program	Pros	Cons
Impact: California Social Studies	Many different pathways and flexibility to access material Good examples/primary sources woven into chapters Balanced and neutral in the area of religion and gender	Essential questions not well developed Lacks direct instruction, scaffolds, and support
History Alive! California Series	Familiar Generic skill lessons that unpack skills Thematic instruction	Was not really updated except in 7th grade,
