Demonstrated Need

Diversity

Almost half of participants (highest indicator of the 4) felt that MVWSD was comprised of a diverse staff with varied experience. Participants were less likely to agree that diversity initiatives were prioritized by MVWSD.

Equity

Less than half of all participants agree that underrepresented populations lack full access to MVWSD resources and support, though the lack of participation by underrepresented groups is most concerning to participants.

Inclusion

Almost half of participants (highest indicator of the 3) felt that MVWSD included them regardless of background. Participants were less likely to agree that their ideas or suggestions were solicited.

Cultural Competency

Nearly half of all participants reported that they felt supported by their district regardless of their cultural background. Nearly half of participants also felt able to communicate with and understand people from diverse backgrounds.

Key Observations

Strengths

- Respondents generally feel their work groups are diverse.
- People generally feel included regardless of background or experience and ideas are shared.
- The organization actively promotes diversity.

Opportunities

- Broader communication of diversity, equity, inclusion & cultural competency initiatives could be enhanced, both at the organization and work group levels.
- Address and identify reasons for disparities in response within locations and departments.
- Improve proportional representation in all activities.
- Look outside for better ways to support DE&I initiatives.
- Policies and practices support the value of individual differences.

Why NERCHE

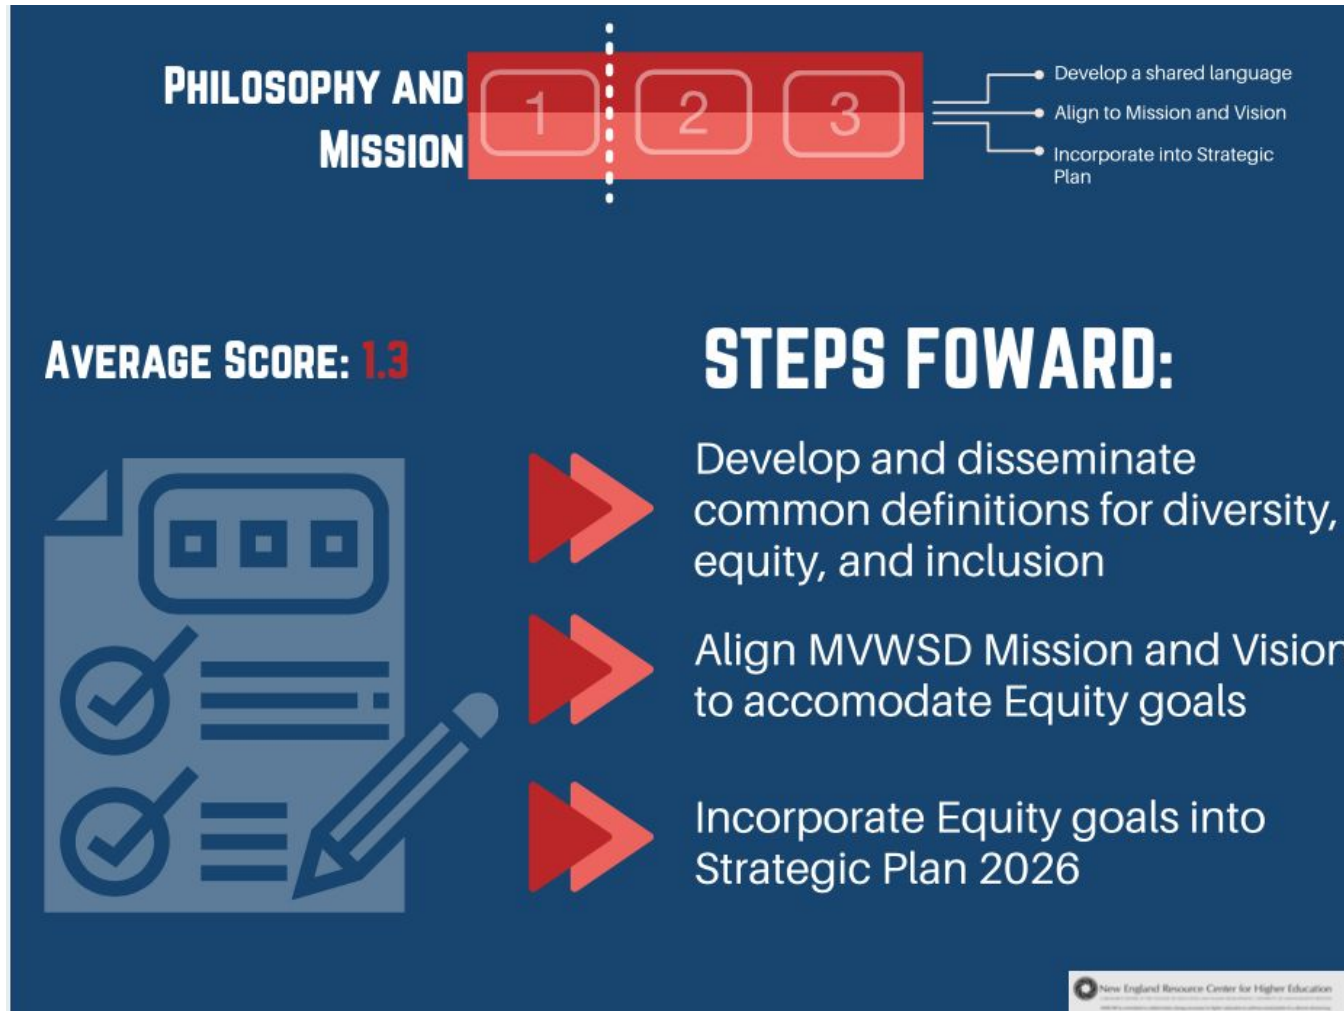

- After an extensive search we adapted and utilized New England Resource Center for Higher Education Self-Assessment Rubric for the Institutionalization of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion in Higher Education.
 - This assessment was comprehensive of all facets of our organization

Demonstrated Need

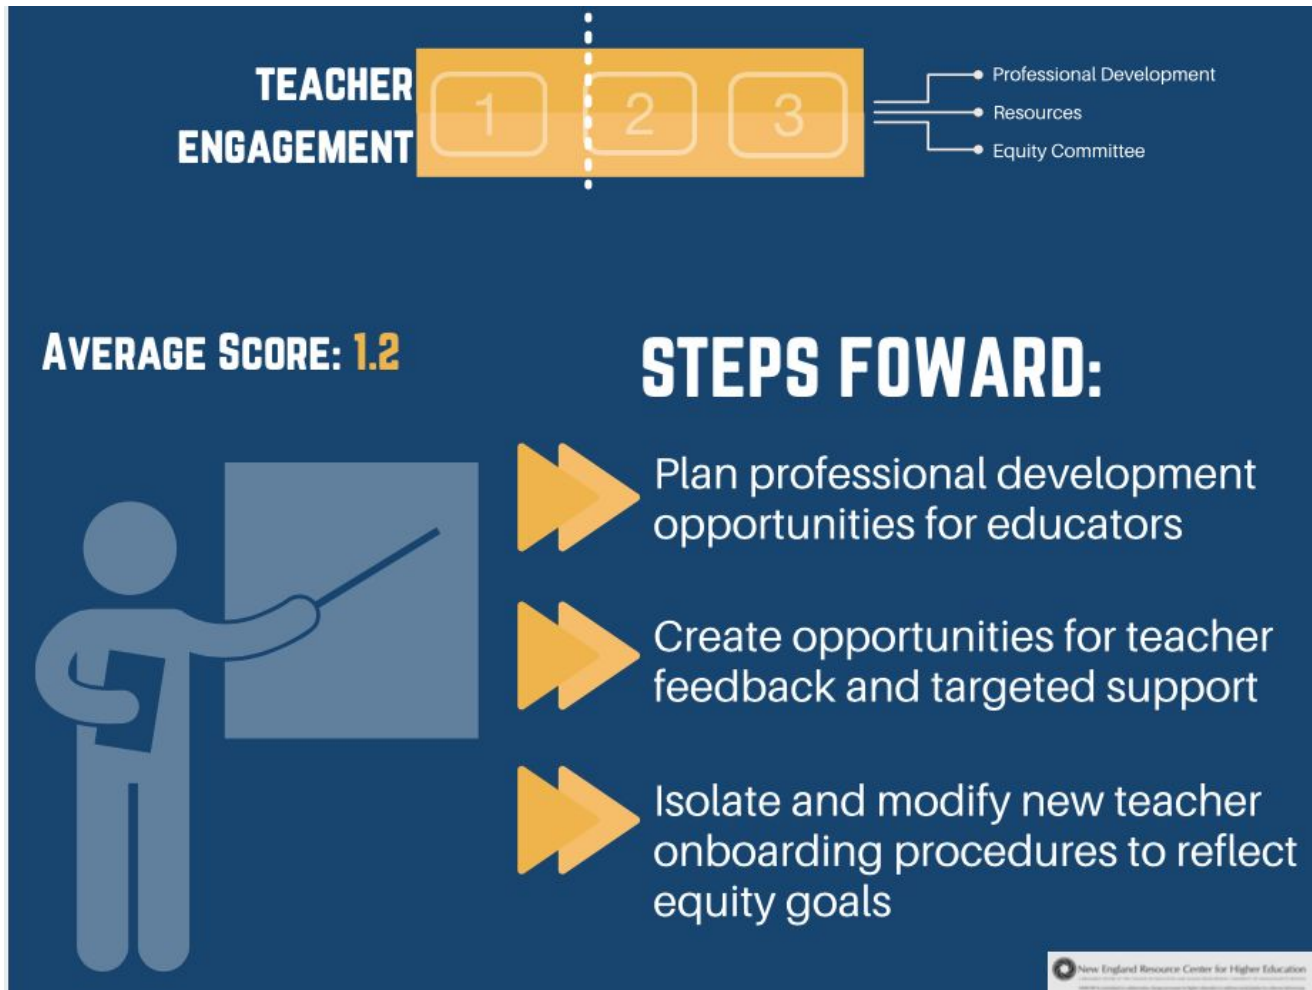

Understanding the ratings

- Stage One: Emerging—At this stage, a campus is beginning to recognize diversity, inclusion, and equity as strategic priorities and is building a campus-wide constituency for the effort.
- Stage Two: Developing—At this stage, a campus is focused on ensuring the development of its institutional and individual capacity to sustain the diversity, inclusion and equity effort.
- Stage Three: Transforming—At this stage a campus has fully institutionalized diversity, inclusion, and equity into the fabric of its institution and continues to assess its efforts to ensure progress and sustainability.

Socio-Political Context for Equity

Socio-Political Context

We are educating our students so that they may be active participants in the world they will inherit.

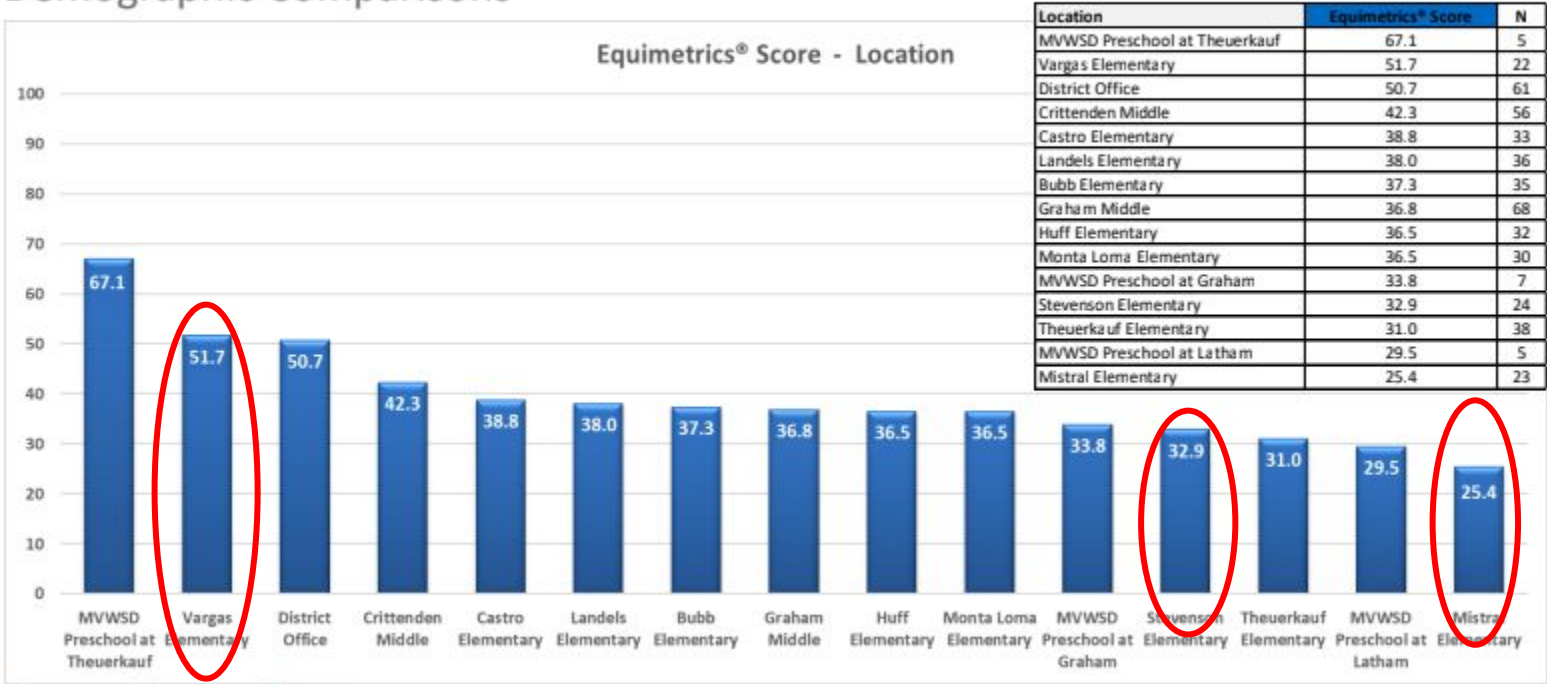

- Police Violence and the deaths of Black Americans
 - visibility of Black Lives Matter movement
- Coronavirus and the exacerbation of poverty and inequity
- Upcoming election cycle
 - divisive political forces
- LGBTQ visibility
 - gender nonconformity, gay marriage, trans rights
- Gender disparities and sexual violence
 - pay gap, political representation and the “Me Too” movement

Critical Decisions

Equimetrics® Data Review - Comparison Report

Demographic Comparisons

“Instead of trying to change some people to fit the organization, we must focus on transforming our organizations to fit all people.”

Building an Approach

Moving Forward

Seeking Board direction for future meetings:

- Developing common language for terms such as equity, cultural competency, and anti-bias, etc.
- Building a timeline based on Board priorities
- Building a structure and common practice to engage multiple stakeholder groups
- Strategies/Ways to measure affixed to each goal to ensure action is taken and then adjusted

In progress

- Develop a full implementation plan of action, with measurables and deliverables - Oct (in development)
 - eventually embed this plan into SP2026
- Continue to make decisive actions around inclusiveness and equity (ongoing)
 - Our actions have an impact
 - Vargas (highest staff rating around equity)
- Teacher, Staff and Leadership training (scheduled)
- Create an MVWSD “Equity Report Card” (scheduled)
- Renaming Frank L. Huff Elementary School (in development)
- Stevenson enrollment practices brought up by SAATF (Student attendance areas task force) (in development)

Questions for the Board

- Using equity as a filter, are there other areas of our organization that you would like for us to investigate?
- Given the information you have received and the recent state of the educational climate, what would you like to prioritize regarding our equity work?
