Ms. Lambert shared the MVWSD Learning Recovery Plan that supports the learning progress of students who have been impacted by distance learning. The plan is designed to support students at all levels. The 2021-22 Learning Recovery Plan will include Core instructional changes, expanding learning time for students at all sites, and Targeted Intensive tutoring.

A community member addressed the Board of Trustees with questions and was reminded that Public Comment was not a back and forth discussion.

IX. REVIEW AND DISCUSSION

A. Community Facilities District Planning and Boundaries Options (40 minutes)

At the Board's request, staff had Charles Heath of TBWBD and Lyn Gruber of Koppel & Gruber presented a follow-up presentation on funding options to pay for new growth anticipated in the District. The Trustees would like to pursue the survey as a next step.

The following member of the public addressed the Board of Trustees:

- William Lambert

B. In Person or Remote Board Meetings (30 minutes)

There will be a balance between in-person and remote attendance. Dr. Rudolph will decide if the staff will present remotely or in-person. Bringing all staff back once the risk of infection isn't as great.

Dr. Rudolph will reach out to legal representation Dannis Woliver Kelley, regarding in-person meetings and public presence laws.

X. BOARD UPDATES

BOARD UPDATE BY ELLEN WHEELER

Summer 2021 Update:

1. Attended multiple ACSA Legislative Lunch Break meetings.
2. Attended informal meetings of the Santa Clara County School Boards Association, including update meetings with Santa Clara County Superintendent Dr. Mary Ann Dewan.
3. Attended the "Brokers of Excellence" forum hosted by California's former State Superintendent of Education, Jack O'Connell.
4. Attended the meeting of the Santa Clara County Board of Education to observe their interview and selection of their new trustee for Area 2.
5. Attended the first Vargas Principal's Coffee of this school year.
6. Attended the Parent Information Session for MVWSD's Independent Study Program.
7. Attended the CAT Ice Cream Social (Community Action Team).
8. Attended the first Strong Start meeting of this school year.
9. Attended the final 2021 California Budget Workshop by Capitol Advisors Group.
10. Attended a Washington Post interview featuring U.S. Secretary of Education Miguel Cardona.
11. Attended the first "Superintendent Check-in" of this school year.
12. Met with Bruce Barton, the editor of the "Los Altos Town Crier," regarding a story he was writing on Monta Loma School Park.
13. Attended an economic summit held by San Jose State University and others.
14. Met with Trustee Laura Blakely for a walk and lunch.
15. Met with Fiona Walter (Trustee, MVLA), Grace Mah (Trustee, SCCOE), and Bonnie Mace (Executive Director, SCCSBA) for a walk.
16. Met with Pat Showalter, MV City Council Member, and others for lunch.
17. Met with Dr. Rudolph for my August 1:1 at the MVWSD district office.

Unless otherwise specified, all of these meetings were via Zoom.

Trustee Devon Conley gave an update from the county's board meeting that the least vaccinated age group is the 12-17 year-olds across the county; However, Mountain View, Los Altos, and Palo Alto areas have a high vaccination rate for that group. Having school site vaccinations that offer vaccinations to the community has been successful.

Trustee Laura Berman Shared and thanked Reach Potential for the school for the supply distribution that took place. Trustee Wheeler mentioned that the PTA council had given Reach Potential an Honorary Service Award to recognize the outstanding work they do in the community.

XI. ITEMS FOR FUTURE AGENDAS

The following were brought forward as items for future agendas:

- 1) A non-action report to the board on COVID safety procedures in schools, and have this as a repeating discussion and update at each board meeting as long as local infection rate is high (high can be defined as region nearing the former purple tier).
  - On the agenda for the next Board meeting.

2) The discussion of forming a board or district advisory group on COVID consisting of MVWSD community members with medical or scientific expertise to help advise COVID protocols.

- Imbedded in the September 9 Board meeting.

3) Goal setting for the board retreat.

- Not needed; new Board goals are not being worked on.

4) A non-action presentation to the board of the past timeline, decision process, and community check points that were part of the middle school math change.

- Imbedded in the September 9 Board meeting.

5) A non-action report to the board on current status of the financial conditions and timeline for the teacher housing project.

- A future update is being brought to the Board.
