Executive Support and Organizational Development Provided by Peter Gorman Leadership Associates for the Mountain View Whisman School District

Biography

Dr. Peter Gorman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Peter Gorman Leadership Associates LLC, has been recognized nationally as an education leader and for developing outstanding leadership teams. He has more than three decades of experience in education and also has worked as a senior executive in a Fortune 500 company.

He provides executive support and organizational development for school district senior leadership teams and school boards across the nation. He is the author of the book "Leading a School District Requires Clarity, Context, and Candor: An Aligned System to Increase Student Achievement at Scale" and contributing editor of "Board & Administrator" writing the lead column monthly. He is Chief In Residence for Chiefs For Change working to build a pipeline of Future Chiefs for states and districts.

His career began as a second-grade teacher in Orlando, Florida. He worked as a teacher, principal, and district-level administrator in Orange, Seminole and Osceola counties in Florida before becoming superintendent of schools in Tustin, California. In 2006, he became superintendent of Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools in North Carolina. Under his leadership, the district won the 2011 Broad Prize in Urban Education, which recognizes increases in student achievement and closing of achievement gaps. Twenty-one members of the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Leadership Team during his tenure have been appointed as superintendents nationally. The book "Within Reach, Leadership Lessons in School Reform" chronicles his time with Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools and four other books reviewed aspects of his tenure along with numerous articles, research studies, and case studies.

In his role as Executive Vice President of Education Services for Amplify, a division of News Corp, he led nearly 100 team members in the Government Relations, Marketing and Sales areas.

Dr. Gorman graduated from Michigan State University with a bachelor's degree in elementary education. He also holds a master's in business administration
