Responsibilities of Organization

Agreement(s) and Payment Due Dates

This contract, with authorized signature, needs to be received on the date indicated in the first paragraph above or your program will be cancelled. If a consultant agreement or additional agreement is required by your Organization, then the consultant agreement is due 30 days from today, and your payment is due 45 days from today or 6 weeks prior to your program delivery date (whichever comes first). Payments can be made by Purchase order, Visa, MasterCard, Discover or American Express, or by a single check made payable to The Regents of the University of California.

Rescheduling

You may reschedule your program up to 6 weeks in advance of the delivery date. Rescheduling will be done based on resource availability and cannot be guaranteed.

Cancellations

You may cancel your program up to 6 weeks in advance of the delivery date with no penalty. For cancellations made less than 6 weeks in advance, no refunds will be issued.

Program Details

You are responsible for checking the dates, times and program title and notifying us within 72 hours from the date we emailed the contract to you if there is an error so corrections can be made.

Maximum Enrollment

Our maximum number of students per program is set to ensure the quality and safety of the experience; students exceeding the maximum enrollment will not be admitted. The maximum for your program is stated on the Hall website and in your sales item information.

Program Requirements

Program location must be accessible by elevator and ramps and be available for program set up and clean up an hour prior to and post the program delivery times.

All programs on one day need to take place in the same location.

An Organization staff member or teacher/school staff member if the Site is a school needs to be present during all program presentations.
